IN OLD NEW YORK THE MAJORITIES

Were the Biggest Since Cleveland's Election.

TAMMANY'S VOTE WAS LOYAL
To the Ticket, and Sulzer
Was Swept Into the Governorship.

PRESIDENT TAFT RAN SECOND

New York, Nov. 8.—Woodrow Wilson won the electoral vote of New York and William Sulzer was elected Governor with the largest Democratic majorities since Grover Cleveland was elected Governor in 1892. Both the Presidential and gubernatorial nominees will have a plurality of at least 150,000.

It was the division of the Republican party that enabled the Democrats to win this victory, and will give them the control of the New York Legislature by a two-thirds vote. Governor Wilson did not hold the Bryan vote of four years ago, but the Democratic loss was insignificant compared with the division of the Republican vote.

President Taft ran second in New York and if the election furnished one great real surprise it was in the small vote for Theodore Roosevelt. The Bull Moose landslide did not materialize, and in the industrial cities up the State he did not get nearly the vote the leaders of his party predicted, and which the Democrats and Republicans feared he would receive.

President Taft was the stronger up the State. Mr. Roosevelt in New York City, and the vote for Governor was in about the same ratio as that for President.

There is little doubt that Job Hedges will run second for Governor, and the Republican party will continue as a major party and be entitled to the prestige and the patronage that goes with that position.

Governor Wilson and Mr. Sulzer both carried New York City by about 130,000. Charles F. Murphy had promised the Democratic National Committee $25,000 for Governor Wilson, and the Tammany men were rejoicing to-night that no charge could be made that they had not given the ticket loyal support. But what was more surprising than the vote in the city was that in the Republican strongholds up the State. For the first time since the Cleveland victory, 30 years ago, that part of the State went Democratic.

Not one of the Republican overlords could hold his Republican plurality. William Barnes, Jr., did better than any of the others, for Albany county gave President Taft approximately 3,000 plurality, and the Roosevelt vote was small.

Erie county went strong for both the Democratic State and national ticket, and in that section of the State Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Straus were second.

Rochester went Democratic for the first time in years. Governor Wilson had a plurality of 1,200 and Mr. Sulzer led Mr. Hedges by 250. But little better was done in Syracuse. The third party drew enough votes from the Republicans in each of those strongholds to give the Democrats an advantage.

It was Westchester where the Republicans suffered the most. Four years ago William L. Ward, then National Committeeman, saw his ballot give President Taft a plurality of 11,000. This year Governor Wilson had a plurality of more than 6,000, with Mr. Roosevelt third. Mr. Hedges fared even worse, for Mr. Straus ran second, although Mr. Sulzer has a comfortable margin, more than any Democratic nominee had before in years.

Schenectady was one of the industrial cities where the Bull Moose men had looked for a large vote for Mr. Roosevelt. He received less than one half of the strength shown by Governor Wilson, who had 4,124. Mr. Roosevelt was fourth in this city, for he received 2,057 votes, and Debs, the Socialist nominee, had 2,271.

President Taft led Mr. Roosevelt in all the counties along the southern tier. It was the same in the Republican strongholds of Northern New York.

The Bull Moose vote was always third, but it drew enough from the Republicans to reduce the normal pluralities by half, or in the close counties to give the Democrats the advantage. In Jefferson county, carried by President Taft four years ago by more than 5,000, the plurality this year was about 500. St. Lawrence, always good for from 7,000 to 10,000, came across this year with a scant 4,500.

COMMITTED SUICIDE IN THE COURT HOUSE YARD

Hawesville, Ky., Nov. 7.—James Lanham, 65 years old, committed suicide in the court house yard here to-day about 9 a.m. by drinking carbolic acid.

Lanham arrived in Hawesville yesterday afternoon and paid for his board and lodging at the hotel by doing chores for the hotel. It was after noon to-day before his home could be located. He registered at the hotel as James Lanham, with no address, but was this afternoon identified by former Hardinsburg people who now reside in Hancock county.

Nothing was found on his person except a pocket knife, a comb and 10 or 15 cents in money.

The Coroner held an inquest, and the jury returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death by drinking carbolic acid.

Lanham said he had been out of employment, and he seemed to be very despondent.

HONEYMOON OF AN OHIO
COUNTY MAN CUT SHORT

The Owensboro Messenger says: Harry Baynes, a young man about 26 years old, is in custody at Evansville on the charge of seduction. The crime is said to have been committed at Rockport, Ky., in Ohio county, where, until a short time ago, he resided. The complaint was made by Miss Lilian Maddox, daughter of J. P. Maddox, deceased, and the warrant was sworn out by the mother of the girl.

Baynes will be taken to Hartford for trial as soon as Gov. McCreary can ask for a requisition on the Governor of Indiana.

Baynes married about two weeks ago, and he was intercepted by the officers on last Saturday while enjoying his honeymoon.

HIRAM BRISTOW DEAD
—WAS PIONEER CITIZEN

Hiram Bristow, one of the pioneer citizens of Daviess county, and one of the most highly respected and prosperous farmers of this section, died at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, at his home at Habit, after an illness of paralysis for four years.

Mr. Bristow was born in Daviess county June 15, 1842, and at his death was 70 years, four months and 23 days old. He united with the Baptist church at the age of 21. He was married to Minerva Kirk in 1865, Rev. James Dawson, a well known Baptist minister of that day, performing the ceremony. Six children are the only surviving members of his family: Mrs. Chas. Ridgle, of Dermont; Mrs. Jack Williams, of Cane Run; Mrs. Chas. Harrison, Mrs. Gus Taylor, Mrs. Elbert Ware and Mr. Bunyan Bristow, of Habit. He is also survived by nine grandchildren.

W. J. BRYAN PREPARES TO STAY OUT OF CABINET

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—A straight tip is to the effect that W. J. Bryan will not accept the tender of the office of Secretary of State in President Wilson's cabinet. He prefers to remain free to follow his own course.

THE FIRES OF PARTY LOYALTY

To Be Kept Ablaze On Re-publican Altar.

TAFT OUTLINES PLAN TO SAVE

The G. O. P. from Eternal Destruction—Deplores Talk of Tariff Agitation.

HE SEES TROUBLE FOR WILSON

Columbus, O., Nov. 9.—The fires of party loyalty are to be kept ablate on the altar of Republicanism.

Defeated, but far from discouraged, President Taft already has formed plans for holding together and strengthening the Republican party:

The plans are indefinite and still vague, but he declared to-night to friends who accompanied him North from Cincinnati that the party will continue to exist; that it will be as active as in the past and that there is no reason to believe that its chances of future success are not excellent.

So far as the President's plan is concerned, he hopes to see organized a "National Republican Club" entirely apart from the Republican National Committee, which shall cherish the principles of the party and be a source of political activity not only during election years, but at all times.

The President spoke of the Republican Club of New York, the Hamilton Club of Chicago and other organizations similar in character, and expressed the belief that through these clubs interest and loyalty could be kept alive.

To a suggestion that he might be the Republican party's nominee in 1916, the President replied with a smile, but made no comment. He laughingly repeated his intention of returning to Cincinnati and the practice of law.

The President is convinced that the task of President-elect Wilson will not be easy. He said to-night that he earnestly hoped Mr. Wilson would not call an extra session of Congress to revise the tariff. He wished, he said, to see the present prosperity continue as long as possible.

Mr. Taft declared that Mr. Wilson would face a Congress made up to a large extent of untried men who have come to believe in "histrionic publicity," and who believe that to show their faith with the people they must at time be "insurgents" and oppose the program of the leaders.

The President was particularly interested in any tariff-revision program, and laughed when he said he was eagerly awaiting the Democratic efforts to reduce the schedules of that "Iniquitous Payne-Aldrich law."

The President left Columbus at 5:40 for Washington. He expects to stay there, with but few trips away from the White House, until March 4.

He announced to-day that he will not visit the Panama Canal during the Christmas holidays, as he had planned, and authorized Congressman Sherly, of Kentucky, a caller on his private car, who was en route to Panama, to give Colonel Goethals his "kind regards."

Richard L. Jarvis, one of the husky six-foot Secret Service men who has guarded President Taft since he was elected four years ago, has been notified to proceed to Princeton. He will be joined by other Secret Service men later.

"Jimmie" Sloan, who has been head of the White House Secret Service force for several years, and "Jack" Wheeler, his principal assistant, who has laid out the Taft trips, will stay with the President.

HUNTING SEASON OPENS
NEXT FRIDAY, NOV. 15

The quail and rabbit season will open next Friday morning, throughout the State of Kentucky. The indications are that there will be many hunters in the field on the opening date.

The new law passed by the last Legislature requires hunters in the State to have a license, and if you go into the field without this little paper, you will be subject to arrest and fine. Reports from different counties of the State show that many licenses have been issued. The last report made from Frankfort shows this, and the number has been almost doubled since that time.

Reports from the country indicate that the hunters will have a hard time finding many quail, the heavy rains in the spring and early summer drowning many of the young birds. Rabbits are said to be scarcer than usual this year.

The quail season comes to an end on January 1, and between November 15 and that time the fields will be filled with hunters.

The hardware stores all report a good business, as a large amount of sporting goods and ammunition have been sold up to this time.

BEAVER DAM.

Nov. 11.—On last Saturday evening Mr. Chester Leach and Miss Ora Maddox surprised their friends in town by driving to the home of Rev. G. W. Gordon, at Prentiss, and being united in matrimony, Rev. Gordon officiating. Mr. Leach is a young man of fine business qualifications and doing business in the firm of Leach & Leach in the clothing and shoe business in our town. Miss Ora is a noble Christian girl and was long the lady clerk for Stewart & Co. before the fire. After the fire she accepted a position as clerk in the Barnes store. She has made many friends while in business. May their pathway through this life be strewn with flowers, is the wish of their many friends.

Mr. Merle Taylor, of Dyersburg, Tenn., is in town visiting friends and relatives this week.

The Rev. Birch Shields will move from Rockport to Beaver Dam this week.

Our town trustees are opening a ditch on the north side of the railroad in town for the purpose of draining the flat land in that section which we think, when completed, will be a great help to the people living in that section of town.

KENTUCKY BAPTISTS TO MEET AT MADISONVILLE

Madisonville, Ky., Nov. 9.—The General Baptist Association of Kentucky will meet here for a three days' session beginning next Wednesday, November 13. Many prominent speakers will be on the ground and the sessions will be held at the First Christian church, as the Baptists have no church at present. Their new structure is under way and soon they will have one of the prettiest and most commodious church buildings in this part of the State.

Mayor D. W. Gatlin, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, has appointed committees to find homes for the coming delegates and all the denominations are helping the Baptists in securing homes for the visitors. About 300 delegates and visitors are expected to be in attendance.

Tobacco Prices Fixed.

Bowling Green, Ky., Nov. 11.—The prices fixed by the board of control for the pooled tobacco are as follows:

Bright, twenty-four inches up, leaf, $10; lugs, $8; twenty-two inches, $9 and $7; twenty inches, $8 and $6; eighteen inches and down, $7 and $6; trash, $3.50.

Dark, twenty-six inches and up, leaf, $9 and lugs $7; twenty-six inches, $8 and $7; twenty inches, $7 and $6; eighteen inches and down, $6 and $5; trash $3.50. Acreage pooled in district 14,000, and it is estimated that the pooled tobacco for the district will exceed 11,200,000 pounds.

A Great Revival.

Eld. J. H. Tow, of Rochester, has just closed a grand revival with Baileytown Baptist Church. There were something near thirty professions and twenty-eight additions. A great spiritual awakening and the church greatly revived. Strong men and women were moved to action under the strong appeals of the gifted evangelist. Any pastor having a church that needs to be awakened would make no mistake in securing the help of Bro. Tow.

DO NOT AGREE ON TOBACCO PRICES

Control Board and Buyers
At Variance.

WILL HOLD ON TO THE WEED

Buyers Claim That Market is Glutted from Purchases
Last Year.

MAY CUT OUT CROP NEXT YEAR

The Owensboro Messenger says:

From present indications, it looks as though some little time may elapse before the pool of the Green River Tobacco Growers' Association, which has approximately 20,000,000,000 pounds of tobacco pledged to it, will be sold, as the price that the board of control has placed on the samples of the crop, is more than the crop is worth, according to the statements of the buyers or at least a portion of them.

There has been no official meeting between the buyers and the association officials, but in the several conferences that have been held, the buyers state that the price scale, ranging from $10 down to $6 for the leaf and lugs and $3 for the trash, is more than the tobacco is worth to them, while the farmers state that they will hold out for the price that they have set on the tobacco.

From the viewpoint of the buyers, or at least according to their talk, there is a surplus of tobacco this year and they also claim that while the color of the tobacco is improved this year over that of last season, the weed is sadly lacking in weight and body.

The farmers' side of the proposition is that they must receive the prices that they have set in order to enjoy any sort of returns on their tobacco. They claim that the actual cost of production of tobacco is something over six cents, owing to the high cost of farm labor and that under the price scale they have submitted on the samples, the average of the tobacco will be only about seven and one-quarter cents per pound, so that it would be impossible for them to consider a lower figure on the samples that they have made.

The pool last year was something over 20,000,000 pounds and the buyers claim that the crop glutted the market, so that they do not stand in need of the crop this year at such high prices. The farmers are equally positive that they will hold on and that they will not sell their tobacco at a figure lower than they consider it to be worth.

Before taking final action on any matter of prices or closing a deal for the sale of the pool, the board of control of the association must submit the matter to the poolers themselves for final ratification and acceptance or rejection.

There were a great many of the farmers in the association headquarters on Saturday and all of them expressed their willingness and determination to back up the board in the demand for a fair price for the tobacco and said that they would never willingly sell for less than the prices that they consider very fair.

There is a probability that the buyers and the association officials will attempt to get together on the matter of prices this week but it is hardly probable that the sale will be closed for several days.

The Equity and Home Warehouse people have made up their minds, but it is understood that they have not yet determined upon the scale of prices that they will demand for the tobacco.

The growers who pool state that in the event of a hitch in the sale of the tobacco this year, they will hold the crop and will then not make another crop of tobacco next year, but will devote their time to the growing of other farm products.

It is stated that the farmers are quiet but determined in the matter and that they feel that the price placed on the crop is the lowest that they could name, so that they could make a reasonable profit on their time and labor and that to sell for a lower price would be simply to have grown the crop at a loss.

Should the system get run down—digestive organs weak—the blood thin and sluggish, take Vinol, which is a delicious combination of the medicine—body-building properties of cod's livers, with the useless grease eliminated and tonic iron added. We regard Vinol as one of the greatest body-builders and strength-creators in the world for aged people.

Mrs. Mary Ivey, of Columbus, Ga., says: "If people only knew the good Vinol does old people, you would be unable to supply the demand; it is the finest tonic and strength-creator I ever used."

We wish every feeble old person in this vicinity would try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction. For Sale by James H. Williams, Druglist, Hartford, Ky.

Killed by Vicious Ram.
Charlestown, Va., Nov. 3.—Attacked by a vicious ram while she was mailing a letter in a rural box in the vicinity of her home, near this place. Mrs. Virginia Earl, wife of Robert Earl, wealthy planter of Jefferson county, was knocked down and so severely injured that she died to-night without regaining consciousness.

Only a Fire Hero

But the crowd cheered, as, with burned hands, he held up a small round box, "Fellows!" he shouted, "this Bucklen's Arnica Salve I hold, has everything beat for burns." Right! Also for boils, ulcers, sores, pimples, eczema, cuts, sprains, bruises. Surest piles cure. It subdues inflammation, kills pain. Only 25 cents at James H. Williams.

Tit For Tat.

"Dear Clara," wrote the young man, "pardon me, but I'm getting so forgetful. I proposed to you last night, but really forgot whether you said yes or no."

"Dear Will," she replied by note, "so glad to hear from you, I know I said yes to some one last night, but I had forgotten just who it was."

The Retort Courteous.

"Mike, I am going to make you a present of this pig."

"Ah, sure; an' 'tis just like you, sor!" —[November Woman's Home Companion.]

PRESCRIPTION

For a Long Life.

This is the prescription for a long life given by an old gentleman in Connecticut, who is ninety-nine years old and still well and cheerful, "Live temperately, be slow to anger, don't worry, take plenty of exercise in the fresh air, and, above all, keep cheerful."

Should the system get run down—digestive organs weak—the blood thin and sluggish, take Vinol, which is a delicious combination of the medicine—body-building properties of cod's livers, with the useless grease eliminated and tonic iron added. We regard Vinol as one of the greatest body-builders and strength-creators in the world for aged people.

Mrs. Mary Ivey, of Columbus, Ga., says: "If people only knew the good Vinol does old people, you would be unable to supply the demand; it is the finest tonic and strength-creator I ever used."

We wish every feeble old person in this vicinity would try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction. For Sale by James H. Williams, Druglist, Hartford, Ky.

And about the best part of it all was that so many Democrats had a hand in it with their hard-earned dollars and little twenty-five-cent pieces!

The original Wilson men in Kentucky are now coming in for honorable mention. And they deserve all the kindly things being said about them.

No, son, it doesn't take any professional taxidermist to fix up a Thanksgiving turkey. Most any good housewife can beat the professional and not half try.

But almost the hardest blow of all was the defeat of Uncle Joe Cannon, Iroquois county, the largest county in Mr. Cannon's district, went against him for the first time in many years.

Strayed Away—One Presidential candidate recently elected. Says he's going to stay hid for several days and get a rest. His recent opponents have little trouble in avoiding the reporters.

Poor old elephant—every year he looks about ten years older than he did just after the last Presidential election, but this year he looks clear down and out, with little or no hope of recuperation.

For the first time in many years, Trigg county gave a Republican majority of 62 at the election last week. The Cadiz Record says it was the stay-at-home vote that did it, which is no doubt correct.

The one blot on Kentucky's splendid election record is the fact that Caleb Powers is returned to Congress. Otherwise the affair is so glorious, however, that we can in a measure overlook this discrepancy.

The Bull Moose was all right as a fine specimen of the hunter's delight, but like most of his species, he got rattled at the supreme moment and immediately there was a stampede. Everybody knows the rest.

Mr. Bryan has declined to discuss the secretaryship of State in Gov. Wilson's cabinet. Mr. Bryan is not pretty, but he has a long head. Perhaps the Nebraskan nurses 1916 ambitions—who knows?

We have an idea that the pie hunters might as well curb their appetites for awhile yet. President-elect Wilson is a very conservative sort of fellow and he will not be rash in either promising or discharging out political pie in all of which he will show his wisdom.

Even up to the very eve of the election we heard Bull Moosers and Republicans bemoaning the great blunder made by the Democrats in nominating Woodrow Wilson. Seems like they felt something coming but didn't know just what it was.

At Benton, Ky., Thursday morning when Postmaster W. S. Griffith arrived at the post-office, he was startled by finding a real live rooster sitting quietly in the post-office door. Editor Cross does not attempt to explain, but we suppose he takes this incident as a matter of course.

It seems strange that as long as the people have been voting by secret ballot and as much instruction as they have had on the subject, that they should continue to make blunders. About 20 ballots in this county were stamped with the cross opposite one of the electors. The best plan is to stamp beneath a device, within the circle.

There was perhaps never a campaign in the history of the country carried on with less anxiety along financial and business lines. Not a ripple in the business stream indicated that anything out of the ordinary was transpiring. The confidence in Gov. Wilson's business integrity is supreme and we are continuing along an era of progress and prosperity with undiminished strides.

LOAF OF BREAD KEPT FOR DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENT

Pittsburg, Penn., Nov. 9.—On November 3, 1896, the day William McKinley first defeated William Jennings Bryan for the Presidency of the United States, the wife of John Kowalsky, inventor and aviator, baked her week's supply of bread.

As she was taking the bread out of the oven, Levi Stitt, J. Johnson, R. Ritkey and S. Whitinger, all Republicans, rushed in and informed ed Mrs. Kowalsky, who, with her husband, favored Bryan, that McKinley was elected.

Mrs. Kowalsky merely replied: "Well, then this one loaf of bread shall not be cut until a Democrat is elected President."

Stitt and the others declared, "All right, in that case we will eat it."

Mrs. Kowalsky took the old loaf to-day from the receptacle where it had been carefully kept for the past 16 years and invited her friends to come and eat it, which they promised to do Sunday. The loaf has shrunk to half the original size, and is as hard as stone.

"UNCLE JOE'S" CONQUERER A NATIVE OF KENTUCKY

Winchester, Ky., Nov. 11.—Frank T. O'Hair, the young Democrat who defeated former Speaker Joe Cannon, is a native of Wolfe county and is a nephew of W. T. Swango, of Winchester, and a cousin of South Trimble, former Congressman from the Seventh district, and the present clerk of the House of Representatives, in Congress.

A dispatch from Paris, Ill., where Mr. O'Hair lives, says that he accepted the nomination against Cannon reluctantly, but after getting into the fight he astonished the old campaigners by the novelty and success of his methods. While Cannon was hurling statistics at his audiences to prove his own and his party's right to survive, O'Hair was quietly circulating among the people in a "get acquainted" campaign that included every town, city and cross-roads community in the district.

O'Hair married the daughter of O. D. Houston, a prominent Paris Republican, and his courtship came near ending abruptly during a contest for the mayoralty of that city a few years ago, during which he was pitted against his future father-in-law in a bitter campaign. The election of Houston, however, was quickly followed by a reconciliation and O'Hair's marriage to his successful opponent's daughter.

MCREARY COUNTY GAVE A PLURALITY FOR TAFT

Whitley City, Ky., Nov. 8.—McCreary county gave Roosevelt 482; Wilson, 255; Taft, 554. Congress: Smith, Democrat, 273; Powers, Republican, 650; Seavy, Progressive, 347. County Judge: J. E. Williams, Republican, 525; Thomas Trammell, Progressive, 305. County Court Clerk: W. A. Meadows, Progressive, 179. Circuit Court Clerk: J. E. Perkins, Republican, 531; Walter Broyles, Progressive, 233. County Attorney: G. W. Stephens, Republican, 510; H. M. Cline, Progressive, 116. Surveyor: Mark Summer, Republican, 514; A. Hogue, Progressive, 16.

OLATON.

Nov. 11.—Mrs. Charlie Felix and two little children arrived last week from Louisiana and are the guests of Mrs. Felix's parents, T. W. Daniel and family, and other relatives here.

Miss Lizzie Patterson was here recently, from Yeaman, Ky., the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jane Payton.

Mrs. W. M. Oller has returned home from a visit to Mrs. Henry Board at Friedland.

Messrs. E. W. Moseley and Elihu Daniel spent Sunday visiting near Trisler, Ky.

Mrs. C. B. B. Felix, aged about 50 years, fell asleep on the evening of Sunday, November 10, after an illness of only a few weeks duration. Mrs. Felix's death has cast a gloom over Olaton and the surrounding country where she is well known and loved. The funeral will be preached by Rev. Lewis of Fordsville, at the Sullenger cemetery this afternoon.

Mr. M. S. Patterson, one of Olaton's hustling merchants, has been given the American Express Co. agency here.

Rev. Winfrey, of near Fordsville, preached at the M. E. Church Saturday and Sunday.

Prof. A. P. Dockery has been working in the interest of Redman ship and we understand a Red Man's lodge is to soon be organized at Olaton.

Mr. J. M. Lane, representing capitalists at Washington, Pa., has received his machinery which was shipped from Tennessee, and says they will at once begin a well. Messrs. Burns and Whitehill have arrived and will have general supervision of the well.

The Rough River Oil & Gas Co. has opened offices in the Heavrin-Barrass building on Main and Center streets, and are located in the rear of Dr. J. R. Pirtle's dental office on the second floor.

Mr. John C. Riley, of the First National Bank, has leased his farm in the Clear Run neighborhood, Route 5, Hartford, to William Bell, of Robinson, Ill. A well will be started on this property within 12 months or the company forfeits a large guarantee.

Mrs. Nancy J. Felix Dead.

Following a two-weeks illness, Mrs. Nancy J. Felix, wife of Mr. C. B. B. Felix, Olinton, died last Sunday at 3 o'clock p.m. After funeral services conducted by Rev. Lewis of Fordsville, her remains were interred in the Sullenger (the family burying grounds) by the side of a son and daughter, who died in infancy several years ago. The deceased, who was born December 9, 1852, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Walker, of Breckenridge county, Ky. She and Mr. C. B. B. Felix were united in marriage November 10, 1870, just forty-two years to the day. A son and five daughters blessed this union. The husband and four daughters, Mrs. Rolla Carden, Irvington, Ky.; Mrs. Samuel Davison, Barrett's Ferry; Mrs. A. J. Wilson, Fordsville, and Mrs. J. R. Hoover, Friedland, survive. The deceased had been a consistent member of the Baptist Church for several years and her taking away broke up one of the happiest homes it has ever been the pleasure of the writer to visit. But the Master had use for her and she answered the call to work in His vineyard amongst loved ones who had gone on before.

The funeral cortège from the residence to the cemetery—more than two hundred yards in length—attested the high esteem in which she was held by her neighbors, and friends from a distance. It can be truly said that a good Christian woman has been called to her final rest.

The broken-hearted husband and daughters have the sincerest condolence of all in this, their sore bereavement, but are commended to Him who doeth all things well.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Dr. Claude Wilson, of Fordsville, will be in Hartford two days each week—Tuesdays and Fridays. He will arrive at 9 o'clock a.m. and remain until 3:40 p.m. each day. Those desiring Osteopathic treatment will find him at the Commercial Hotel during these hours on Tuesdays and Fridays.

JOHN H. WILSON SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Mr. John H. Wilson, of near Sunnysdale, this county, met with a very serious accident last Saturday afternoon. He had just returned home from the Dundee Flouring mill with a load of flour, salt, &c. On driving near his residence, he got up and turned to remove the spring seat and just as he did so his team of mules became frightened and backed suddenly, throwing him out on the double-tree. The team began to run and he fell, the wheels running over him, breaking his collar bone, four ribs and otherwise injuring him internally.

Dr. Stewart, of Dundee, was called and dressed his wounds. At last account yesterday, he was thought to be a little better, but in a serious condition.

IF YOU ARE PREPARING TO FORWARD YOUR ORDERS TO STRANGERS, THIS IS VERY GOOD ADVICE.

MUTUAL AFFAIR EVERY WAY

The man who goes down town Saturday night and sees the lighted streets, illuminated stores and throngs of gay people, perhaps does not stop to think what pays for it all. It is not paid for by taxation, for if so, it would be a burden. It is not paid for by contribution, for that would not be practicable or possible. But it all costs money and something must pay for it. It is paid for by the money that is spent at home.

The merchants reinvest their profits largely in better stocks, better stores and better facilities. They pay their share of the cost of paving the streets and laying the sidewalks and in doing many other things. So it is plain to be seen that the busy streets that the people enjoy on Saturday night are paid for by themselves, is their money returned to them in the shape of a better town.

When you go into a local store and buy goods from a local merchant, you do not only get the goods, but you also get the thrifty town, the paved streets, the schools which your children attend, the churches which preserve the moral atmosphere of your community, the things you enjoy and use, which you and the merchant and the manufacturer pay for in common. You can send the money to some other town and get the goods; but you can't get these other things and even if you think the price is smaller, it is larger in the long run, since you get less in return for your money.

It is plainly evident, then, that the more of your money you spend at home, the more you will get for your money; the quicker will the crossroads become a village, and the community town with all of the conveniences, and none of the inconveniences of the metropolis. The more money you spend at home in patronizing local merchants, in building house for yourself, in dressing better and living better and feeling better, the more you will be able to have and enjoy these things.

Why make the fatal error of hurting your town instead of helping it, of diminishing your town instead of improving it, since you can not hurt or hinder your town without hurting and hindering yourself?

Why teach your children that the city is the place to trade and expect to teach them that it is not the place to go? Why constantly encourage them when they marry to leave the home town and settle in some larger place? Why be the hand to break home ties, to separate yourself from your children?

The more you spend at home the more attractive will your home town be to the coming generation and the more pleasant to your old age. If you have friends, here is where they are. When you make rovers of your children and of yourself, you make your town a poorer place in which to live instead of a better one.

The money we earn, let us spend in securing the largest returns for it. If you send your children away, they may never return. If you send your money away it may never come back.

Your prosperity, your happiness, your children are likely to follow your money wherever it goes. Why not spend it where your children will grow up with it, where it will do you the most good now and give you the most comfort in the future?—[The Community Builder.]

• • • • • LIFE'S UPS AND DOWNS. • • • • •

If life were a uniform level, broken by no vicissitudes and no disasters, with no strange and baffling problems alternating with its reasons of tranquility and success, it would be perhaps less trying than it generally is; also less interesting. Nothing is more tedious than monotony. Nothing wears the nerves like a stirless calm.

The wildest gusts and storms are more preferable to the mariner than the inaction which is compulsory when the wind oves not.

I once met an old lady who said her whole life had been as placid as a summer sea.

During long intervals some member of her family had died. But she had no children. The most intimate and deep of her affection had been spared. And her husband survived.

Strange to say, I did not feel that she was to be envied, for without pain in this world's economy, there is little reaching forward to the heights of joy. Without suffering there is seldom intensity of thankfulness.

Life all a plain road, no hills to climb, no obstacles to surmount, no vicissitudes to endure, is not so desirable on the whole as life which has its struggles, its sorrows, its losses preliminary, as they come to the final realization of its triumphs, its consolations and its everlasting gains.

The past of youth is very short.

The future looks interminable and the immediate present is strenuous. Middle age often carries burdens which youth has brought to it—carries them with a steadfast courage and a serene cheer impossible to youth. And old age is or should be the season of tranquility the season of resting on the oars and waiting for the end. In retrospective hours we sometimes perceive that we made mistakes in our bygone reckonings. We might have avoided some snares and pitfalls had we not rushed along at such a hasty pace.

It is then that we realize our past is gone and our present should be wisely improved, and we should go forth manfully to meet the future.

THE WEALTH OF THE SOIL.

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside appears the following:

"It is a fact that there is no department of effort from which a larger return can honestly be secured than from intelligent and painstaking cultivation of the soil. The scientific management, as now demonstrated, shows that the fertility of the average soil can be much increased and made more profitable."

SIGNIFICANT.
 The second day drew to its close with the twelfth juror still unconvinced.

"Well, gentlemen," said the bailiff, entering quietly, "shall I, as usual, order twelve dinners?"

"Make it," said the foreman, "eleven dinners and a bale of hay."

should have rich, red blood and sturdy, healthy bodies to withstand cold rains, changing seasons and winter storms.

If your child is weary when rising—lacks energy and ambition—has no appetite or possibly sallow skin or a pinched face—it is for want of vital body-nourishment; this growing period demands special, concentrated, easily digested food for body-development—mental strain—physical changes.

FRIGHTFUL ATROCITIES PERPETRATED BY TURKSCut Off Noses and Hands of Enemy—Deluged With Rain and Blood.

Athens, Nov. 8.—Shocking stories of a massacre of Greeks by Turks come from the town of Servia, just across the Greek frontier in Turkey. The reports say the fleeing Turkish troops in passing through the village of Metassa ordered the Greek inhabitants to follow them on peril of being massacred by Turkish cavalry.

On refusing, 52 of the Greeks were made prisoners and taken to Servia and lodged in the jail, in which were 73 others of their companions.

Later the Governor of the prison told the Greeks they were free and ordered them to leave the building. On emerging, the Greeks were surrounded by soldiers and an armed mob, who began a massacre. Only four of the Greeks escaped with their lives.

When the massacre was over a soldier cut off the noses and hands of the dead men.

Dispatches from Arta say that Turkish atrocities in Albania are continuing, and that the inhabitants of Epirus are fleeing to Arta and the mountains.

Describing the fight at Lule Burgas, a correspondent says:

"Fierce thunderstorms raged and the field was deluged with rain and blood. Hand-to-hand encounters were frequent. The Turks offered most desperate resistance. He dead piled up. At intervals along the line whole companies were wiped out by raking artillery fire."

"When ammunition gave out temporarily, muskets were used as clubs; men used their hands as claws upon the enemy—they locked in deadly embrace and sunk their teeth into the necks and faces of their opponents."

"There could be no better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My children were all sick with whooping cough. One of them was in bed, had a high fever and was coughing up blood. Our doctor gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the first dose eased them, and three bottles cured them," says Mrs. R. A. Donaldson, of Lexington, Miss. Told of quick relief—of undoubted benefit.

The facts are now confirmed.

Such testimony is complete—the evidence conclusive.

It forms convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. A. L. Alms, 607 Locust St., Owensboro, Ky., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results and consider them a superior kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills promptly relieved backache, difficulty with the kidney secretions and pains in the back and top part of my head. We have every confidence in them."

The above statement was given May 9, 1907, and when Mrs. Alms was interviewed on February 20, 1912, she said: "I have not used Doan's Kidney Pills of late, as the cure they effected some time ago has been permanent. You are at liberty to continue publishing my statement."

MOTHER'S BLOOD SOLD TO BUY FOOD

For Her Helpless Children —Pitiful Case.

SPOUSE HELD FOR DESERTION

And Locked in Jail—Mother Bore Her Fearful Ordeal Very Cheerfully.

SAD LIFE OF WRETCHED POOR

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 9.—Deserted by her husband, with no money for herself and seven-year-old boy twins, and herself ill in a hospital, a mother gave up a quantity of her blood in order to obtain funds for the boys' support.

The mother is Mrs. Ethel Brown, of 312 East Hamburg street, and the story of her sacrifice became public to-day when Detective Thomas Quirk returned from Vineland, N. J., bringing with him Charles Leroy Brown, the husband and father, who has been indicted by the grand jury here on charges that he deserted his wife and failed to provide for his family's support.

According to Detective Quirk, Brown, last March deserted his wife and boys, and disappeared.

Until about three months ago the mother worked to provide for herself and little ones. At that time she was removed from her home to a hospital, and in a few days was the mother of another bouncing baby boy. During her illness her small savings had slowly dwindled until she had but a few pennies left, and it was while she was a patient that she sold a quantity of her blood for $25 in order to pay the board of her other children, who were being looked after by friends.

Learning one day that a patient in another institution was in a serious condition, and that the only hope of the surgeons was in transfusing healthy blood into the body of the patient, Mrs. Brown offered to sell her blood. The surgeons were notified of the offer of the mother and in a short time an examination of her blood was made.

The result was that her blood was found to be very healthy and a vein in her left wrist was opened and the blood taken. Mrs. Brown stood the operation well and in a few weeks was able to leave the institution.

In the meanwhile the case of the mother and children was brought to the attention of the State's Attorney and the husband was located in Vineland. The authorities there refused to arrest the man, it is said, and after extradition papers had been prepared, Detective Quirk went to Bridgeton, N. J., and swore out a warrant for Brown, then went to Vineland and arrested him and afterward locked him up in jail at Bridgeton while he went to Princeton to have the papers honored by President-elect Wilson.

Mrs. Brown, 25 years old and pretty, said to-day:

"I don't know for whom it was I gave my blood. The operation took place in July or August last. Doctors told me of an ill woman who was in need of blood. I volunteered. Even though a local anesthetic was given my left arm, I still felt the pain, but I wouldn't back out. It was all for my children's sake. I was on the operating table from two and one half to three hours, I think."

Central City Wedding. Central City, Ky., Nov. 7.—A very pretty wedding and one that is of interest to many in this and Ohio county, the home of the bride, was that of Miss Orpha Brown, of this city, to Mr. Dave Oldham, of Powderly. The ceremony was said at the Baptist parsonage, Rev. Howerton being the officiating minister. The attendants were Misses Genora Rich and Victoria Clements. The bride wore a going-away gown of blue with hat, gloves and shoes en suite. The bride is one of the most attractive girls of Central City, having for some time made her home here with her sister, Mrs. Smith. The groom is a rising young business man of Powderly. Mr. and Mrs. Oldham will be at home in Powderly after the 15th of the month.

Mr. Jim Stewart, of Hartford, spent Sunday with his uncle, Mr. N. G. Patton, here.

Mr. Van May and daughter, Miss Sarah, were in town Saturday shopping.

Mr. Archie Hoover, of Barnett's Creek, is visiting his cousin, Mr. Sammie Hoover, of this place.

Mrs. Nettie Lee and Pearl Griffin were in Beaver Dam Thursday, shopping.

IN MEMORIAM.

On the evening of October 23, 1912, Mr. John T. Hocker received the final summons to come up higher, and with a countenance illumined by the light that comes at the evening of a well spent Christian life, he bravely passed to that great beyond.

He became a Christian in early boyhood and was a devoted member of West Providence Baptist church until the end.

He was married in 1863 to Laura S. E. Maddox. To them were born a daughter and two sons. The daughter Nannie died in infancy and the sons Joe and Sciotia survive him. In 1875 death took from him his companion and again in 1878 he was married to Bettie Rhoads. To this union were born three daughters and one son—Mary, Sadie, Meek and Barney, all of whom survive him.

In 1911 death took this companion, but our heavenly Father did not see fit to leave him thus and in answer to his last pleading prayers He took him gently by the hand and led him safely home.

Bereaved ones, we would commend you to the meek and lowly Nazarene who has added one more light to that eternal home to reflect upon your rugged pathway, leading to father, mother, sister and home.

TRADE OR GRAVITATION.

Nearly 250 years ago one of the greatest intellects connected with science turned his attention to gravitation. In that 250 years physical science has made rapid advances. A boy who has completed a year's work in elementary physics could entertain Newton in electricity were it possible for the great philosopher to return to earth. After learning of the great progress in electricity I can imagine him in his eager desire for knowledge turning to the boy and expecting some light on gravitation. Alas, not only the high school boy, but not even the most learned, can give any definite information on gravitation. The problem is about where Newton left it.—Popular Science Monthly.

Deserted at the End.

William the Conqueror was a man of very gross habit of body and at the siege of Mantes was hurt by the rear of his horse, the pomme of the saddle striking the king in the abdomen and causing injuries from which he died in a few days. Before his death he was deserted by all his attendants, who stole and carried off even the coverings of the bed on which he lay. The body remained on the floor of the room in which the king died for two days before it was buried by charitable monks from a neighboring monastery.

A Vague Impression.

"What is your idea of the character of Lady Macbeth?"

"Really," replied Mrs. Cumrox, "there is so much gossip about people connected with the stage that one scarcely knows what to believe."—Washington Star.

YOUNG WOMAN PLACED UNDER A PEACE BOND

Man Said He Feared She Would Do Him Harm—Old Trouble.

The Owensboro Messenger says:

One of the most unusual suits that has been heard in Hancock county for some time was that of George Hayden against Miss Blanche Hite, in which the plaintiff sought to have the young woman placed under a peace bond, the man stating that he feared that she would do him some bodily harm. The case was heard by Justice T. B. Henderson and while he stated that he really did not consider it necessary, he placed the young woman under $50 bond, which she at once executed.

It is stated that the trouble originated from a gift of money that the infant son of George Hayden made to the young woman some time ago, and which he is now seeking to have returned to him. The case is a most unusual one.

Mr. Hayden being a law-abiding man, does not want to become involved in a personal difficulty with any one, and especially a woman, hence his appeal to the law. Attorney Eugene C. Vance, of Hawesville, represents the complainant, and went down yesterday to prosecute the suit.

HOPEWELL.

Nov. 11.—Mr. Duff Grant's house, where he lived, known as the Sep Taylor house, burned last Thursday night. Don't know how it caught. Mr. Grant was working at a sawmill about a mile and a half away and the children had gone to church. They lost everything but what they had on. The people are helping them very liberally. No insurance.

Esq. Miles made a business trip to Hartford last Saturday.

CAUSE AND REMEDY

Uncertainty of the immediate future is looked upon by many men of affairs, as a blockade to enterprise and business prosperity, and this blockade is now quite apparent throughout the channels of trade.

The Presidential Election, the efforts of Congress with no fixed purpose; Organized Labor as a new factor in politics; together with other matters of greater or less import, represent at this time a chaotic conflict of separate interests, to harmonize which is now the problem before the country.

INSPECTION PROOF

EVERY single shoe that goes through the great "Queen Quality" factory must pass through the hands of no fewer than six different inspectors. A premium is paid for every imperfection detected. No shoe with any imperfection however slight is allowed to bear the "Queen Quality" stamp. It must be rejected and sold as damaged. Five expert shoemakers superintend the inspection squad and coach the foremen and workmen to keep every shoe up to the "Queen Quality" standard. As an extra precaution, before packing they get three more inspections—from the inspection squad, the foreman, and the packer. Yet this is only indicative of the methods that make the sales of "Queen Quality" Shoes much the largest in the world. Let us show you the new styles at $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

LOOK ON THE FIRST PAGE

Or the wrapper around your Herald. You will find a little yellow slip. It has printed on it your name and a date after it. The date shows when your subscription expires or when it did expire. This is all the book we keep of your subscription account, and there is no excuse for you not knowing just how you stand with THE HERALD. We are trying to get our subscription list on a strictly cash-in-advance basis, so as to avoid trouble and misunderstanding. We do not want to force the paper upon anybody against their will, but we want all that is due us. Please give this matter your very prompt attention. Look at that little yellow slip containing your name. It will tell you just what you need to know, without any explanation from us. If it is wrong in any way, let us know. Anyhow, please pay us what is due. It takes much money to run a good newspaper nowadays, hence we must keep our subscription accounts collected up. Either come to The Herald office and pay the arrears and a year in advance, or, if you are not coming to town soon, send us a check or post-office money-order for the amount due. We will appreciate it and it will make us think you really want the paper.
